Colour Makes a Comeback

After years of muted, conservative hues being in the spotlight, colour has made a triumphant return to walls, with Dulux recently launching six new palettes for 2010 showcasing everything from bright blues and pinks, to deep oranges, vibrant golds, rich browns and lush greens.

“Colour is back” says Andrea Lucena-Orr, Dulux’ leading colour forecaster, who says the return of bold hues reflects a more positive consumer outlook. The six new palettes from Dulux draw inspiration from nature, fashion trends and global events. Visit www.dulux.co.nz for more inspiration.
